The first settlement made within the borders of Delaware County by white people was in Liberty Township, in 1801. Special Agent Joseph D. Davis, in his "Historical Collections," says: "The first settlement was made May 1, 1801, on the east bank of the Ohio river, five miles below Columbus, by Nathan Carpenter and Avery Weaver, from Hamilton County, N. Y. Carpenter brought his family with him, and built the first cabin. In 1802, Thomas Coffey, with family, from Hamilton County, Penn., moved to and settled two miles above the first settlement. In 1803, Henry Berry, from Wales, transported a cabin to the same place. In the spring of 1804, Capt. Leonard Matthews, from Chester county, Pa., settled in Carpenter's neighborhood, and the next fall Orr, Reynolds and his family moved to the mouth of Allen Creek, and near the river. In 1805, John Lewis, from Ohio, settled on the west side of the river. In 1806, John Carpenter and David Thomas and his family were added to the settlement above the river. In 1807, the first school was opened by the Case, James Coffey and Reuben Fuller. In 1808, Timothy Anderson, A. P. Casey and Mr. Bartholomew located here on Liberty River, and were followed soon after by many other steady settlers, who joined in the work of settling the wilderness.

The first settlement made within the limits of Delaware County by white people was in Liberty Township, in 1801. Speaking of the first settlement, Howe, in his "Historical Collections," says "The first settlement in the county was made May 1, 1801, on the east bank of the Olentangy, five miles below Delaware, by Nathan Carpenter and Avery Powers, from Chenango County, N. Y. Carpenter brought his family with him, and built the first cabin near where the farmhouse now stands. Powers' family came out toward fall, but he had been out the year before to explore the country and select the location. In April, 1802, Thomas Celler, with Josiah McKinney, from Franklin County, Penn., moved in and settled two miles lower down, and, in the fall of 1803, Henry Perry, from Wales, commenced a clearing and put up a cabin in Radnor, three-fourths of a mile from Delhi. In the spring of 1804, Aaron, John, and Ebenezer Welch (brothers) and Capt. Leonard Monroe, from Chenango County, N. Y., settled in Carpenter's neighborhood, and the next fall Col. Byxbe and his company, from Berkshire, Mass., settled on Alum Creek, and named their town Berkshire. The settlement at Norton, by William Drake and Nathaniel Wyatt; Lewis settlement, in Berlin, and the one at Westfield followed soon after." There appears to be no doubt of the truth that Carpenter was the first actual settler in the county. Upon this point, the different authorities agree, also, upon the date of his settlement. In addition to those above mentioned as locating in Liberty Township, they were followed, in a few years, by Ebenezer Goodrich, George and Seth Case, who settled on the west bank of the river, below Carpenter's. David Thomas and his family were added to the settlement about the same time, and squatted just north of the spot occupied by the Cases. James Gillies and Roswell Fuller also came about this time. Timothy Andrews, A. P. Pinney and Mr. Bartholomew located farms on Tyler's Run, and were followed soon after by many other sturdy pioneers, who joined in the work of subduing the wilderness.

THOMAS CASE, farmer; P. O. Hyattville; was born in this township May 26, 1847, son of Seth W. Case, who came to this State in 1816 and located in this county, and remained here until 1863, when he moved to Franklin Co., where he died on May 1, 1866, in Blendon Township; his wife survives him. Thomas, the subject of this sketch, during his 16th year, enlisted in the 60th O. V. I., Co. A, and was engaged in the battles of Spottsylvania, the Wilderness, North Anna, Cold Harbor, the James River movement, and was wounded in the battle before Petersburg June 17, 1864, by being shot in the left side, and was only absent from his regiment forty days, and joined them July 27; was present at the mine explosion in front of Petersburg, and participated in all the battles that the regiment engaged in up to the close of the war. Upon his return home, attended school and farmed. July 17, 1870, was united in marriage to Lavinie Thomas; born Aug. 14, 1849; have three children, but two living Helen A., born Sept. 8, 1871; Walter R., Dec. 16, 1878; after his marriage he continued farming; came here in 1873, and has since remained one mile south of Hyatt's Station; member of Powell Lodge, No. 465, I. O. O. F. Mr. Thomas' father, during his life, was a member of the Republican party, served over thirty years as Justice of the Peace. Thomas W., in the last election, was elected to the office of Land Appraiser, as a Democrat.

Thomas and Avery Powers accompanied Capt. Carpenter to the West. They were neighbors in New York, and settled on adjoining farms to Carpenter in this township. Avery was one of the first County Commissioners, a position he filled with credit and satisfaction. He did not live many years, however, to enjoy his new home, but died some time previous to Capt. Carpenter. A son of his, Benjamin Powers, has been, until recently, President of the First National Bank of Delaware, an office he filled acceptably. Thomas Powers served in the war of 1812, and was killed in the battle of the Thames, we believe. Thomas Cellar owned 4,000 acres of land (one section) in the central part of what is now Liberty Township. He was a native of Franklin County, Penn., and came to his new possession in the spring of 1802. Josiah McKinnie came with him, and hailed from the same region. The Cases and James Gillies followed a few years later. These were all related by marriage or otherwise, and located upon the "Cellar section." Thomas Cellar had several sons, among them were Thomas, R. M. and J. F. Cellar. McKinnie was one of the first Associate Judges of Delaware County after its organization. Both he and the elder Cellar died years ago, and sleep in the old burying-ground at Liberty Church. McKinnie's widow is still living, nearly ninety years old, but quite active. The Cellar family was a large one, and representatives of it are to be found in many parts of the county. Of the Case family, there were Ralph, Watson and George Case, who were all pioneers. There are still many descendants of them in the country. George Case and his wife lie buried a short distance east of Powell. In the corner of a large field, by the roadside, stand their tombstones, looking as lonesome as a weeping-willow tree by moonlight.

H. J. McCULLOUGH, lumber dealer, Delaware ; his father. David F. McCullough, was born in 1811, in Franklin Co., Penn., and came to Ohio in 1819, settling near Marietta ; about 1821 he came to this county ; his wife was Eunice Case, who was a daughter of Watson Case, of Connecticut : she is now living with her son, the subject of this sketch ; he was born March 14, 1837. in Delaware, and received a liberal education. In 1862, he enlisted in Co. E, 84th O. V. I. serving 100 days; in 1863, he became his father's successor in the lumber business, in which trade he has been eminently successful. having accumulated a liberal competency, and lives in a fine residence built by him at a cost of $10,000 ; Mr. McCullough is a man of sterling qualities, which has endeared him to the community of which he has been a member so long ; he has been called upon to fill a position as hirector in two different r building, associations, and is now the Director of an insurance company, also the Treasurer of the Delaware Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

The following is a copy of the original record in the handwriting of Bishop Chase:

Be it remembered, That, on the ninth day of May in the year of our Lord 1817, the Rev. Philander Chase, late Rector of Christ Church, in the city of Hartford, Connecticut, preached and performed divine service, according to the Liturgy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, in this town of Delaware. Whereupon the following instrument of Parochial Association was drawn up for signature.

"We, the subscribers, deeply impressed with the truth and importance of the Christian religion, and sincerely desirous of promoting its influence in the hearts and lives of ourselves, our families and neighbors, do hereby associate ourselves together by the name, style and title of St. Peter's Church, in the town of Delaware, State of Ohio, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the Liturgy, constitution and canons of which we adopt. "

At the first annual convention of the church held in Columbus, June, 1818, Rev. Mr. Chase was elected Bishop of the diocese of Ohio, and thereafter his visits to Delaware were necessarily less frequent, but he still continued, tinder his special charge, the parishes of Worthington, Columbus. Delaware and Berkshire, of which, in his report to the Convention he says: In ministering to these I employ all my time, except that which is devoted to diocesan duties and these owe to the school, as President of Worthington College.

There being no church building or "meeting house" of any kind in the town, services were held in the court house, which was used as a place of worship by other Denominations, all uniting together when there was to be preaching people from the country bringing their bullies, children and often their dogs.

The first, confirmation service was held on the 8th of August, when the following persons received that holy rite at the hands of the Bishop: James Wolcott, Robert Jameson, William Little, Almon Olmsted, Thomas F. Case, John Minter. Jr., Noah Spaulding, Solomon Smith, Sally Smith, Parthenia Spaulding, Elizabeth Minter, Martha Dildine, Peggy Minter, Malissa Case, Electa Case, Elizabeth Minter-the younger Nancy Minter.

Delaware Historians Honor Fighting Man
1776 Veteran

A new white marker stands this Memorial Day over the grave of one of Central Ohio's "oldest" fighting men.

Delaware County historians, in a special ceremony last week, placed the official U.S. government marker at the grave of George Case, immigrant to Ohio, who fought with Connecticut troops in the Revolutionary War.

He came of a fighting family. George was one of seven brothers who went to war during the Revolutionary War with their father, Capt. John Case of Simsbury, Conn.

George bought his large family to Ohio in 1806 to settle on the 150 acres in the Olentangy valley which he bought from the government [grantor on deed is James Kilbourne] at $2 an acre. A brother, Seth Case, settled on an adjoining farm.

Later three of George's sons went off to fight the War of 1812 and one was killed in action.

George and his wife, the former Electa Moore, were buried in a family plot on the Case farm—a small enclosure with four evergreens at the corners and a sandstone marker at the graves.

The sandstone had long since disintegrated when a group of Delaware Countians including Thomas Graham of Delaware High School, past president of the Delaware County Historical Society, rediscovered the George Case grave.

They wrote to the federal government for an official soldier's marker. The white marble slab was mounted last Saturday, inscribed in memory of George Case, Pvt, Conn. Trooops, Born March 4, 1759, Died Feb. 19, 1834.

Note: He was 74 years, 11 months and 16 days old.

In response to our request for family histories, Al Andrews of Columbus has brought us a genealogy of George Case, an early settler of Liberty Township. George and his family came here from Simsbury, Connecticut in 1806 after purchasing 150 acres of Congress Military Land for $300.00 in Franklin County (now Delaware County). George Case was buried on his land; his grave marker was rediscovered a few years ago. His grave is at the top of Powell Hill and now boasts a Revolutionary War marker. His brother, Seth Case, also purchased 300 acres of land just north of George's land on the west bank of the Olentangy River. Eleanor Lacher Hawk, a descendant of Seth, still lives on Seth's property. The Case genealogy gives the names of both brother's children and their marriages. George's daughter, Electa, married Nathan Carpenter Jr. His grandson, Miles Case, married Emily Jane Bartholomew and built the house pictured at right in Powell. It stood just east of the present Powell Center on East Powell Road.

This picture of the old Case home was donated by Donna Lawrence, whose family once lived there.

Below is a picture of Dr. Charles Talley's home on West Olentangy Street in Powell, donated by Al Andrews. Dr. Talley was born in Concord Township September 13, 1864 and graduated from a Cincinnati medical school in 1886. He started his practice in Hyatts and moved to Powell in 1896. He practiced medicine until his death ca. 1936. We have his photograph, as well.

Revolutionary Marker Put On Grave of Powell Pioneer

By VIRGINIA CRUIKSHANK

On a wooded knoll overlooking the Olentangy River valley east of Powell, a small marble monument was put in place Saturday, marking the last resting place of a Revolutionary War soldier and pioneer settler of Delaware County.

A small group gathered at the spot Sunday afternoon to pay belated homage to George Case, private in the Connecticut troops of the Revolution and settler in this county in 1806.

It marked the fulfillment of a 20-year dream of a Radnor woman, who carried on the project started in 1932 by a descendant of Case. The late Miss Luella Case of Worthington started 25 years ago to compose a genealogy of her family. One of her goals was to find and mark the grave of George Case, forefather of many persons now living in Delaware and Franklin counties.

In 1937, Miss Case pointed out the burial plot of Case and his wife to Mrs. George Pugh (Ruby Case), Radnor. The graves were at the top of Powell Rd. hill (State Route 750), about 500 feet west of the bridge over the Olentangy. It was on the original Case homestead, purchased by him in 1806 from the government, 150 acres at $2 per acre. The graves were marked by four pine trees, one at each corner.

Mrs. Pugh enlisted the aid of the Delaware County Historical Society and the Raymond B. Austin post of the American Legion. The War Department provided an engraved marker which is done for all Revolutionary War soldiers, upon proper application.

A slight delay developed when the sponsoring agencies were unable to find the four pine trees. The Case homestead is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fenstermaker, who gave permission for a grave marker to be put in place.

Died Soon After

Miss Luella Case died in 1937 soon after showing Mrs. Pugh the burial location of the Revolutionary War soldier.

"I believe the site we selected for the marker does not miss the grave of George Case more than a few feet," said Mrs. Pugh, "but we could not find the landmarks pointed out 20 years ago."

The monument was set by Myron

Rausch of the Fuller Monument Works, Delaware.

George Case was the son of Capt. John Case who, with seven of his sons, served in the war. The captain died during the war and one of his sons was killed in the fighting.

George had three sons serving in the War of 1812, one of whom was killed. One of George's brothers, Seth Case, bought land

GEORGE CASE GENEALOGY

George Case was born Mar. 4, 1759 at Simsbury, Conn., the son of Capt. John Case and his wife Sarah (Barber) Case. He was the fifth generation of his family in America, his great, great grandfather, John Case being one of the founders of Simsbury in 1669 and the first to hold office in that place. His first American Ancestors came from England to Cambridge, Mass., in 1630.

George was one of seven sons, all of whom with their father, served in the Revolutionary War. The father, Capt. John Case died May 24, 1776. George's, oldest brother, John died, Nov. of that same year 1776. George Case went to the War as a private when he was 17 years old, enlisting June 1776, a few days after the death of his father. His brothers, Giles and Asa were at one time in the same Company with him. George Case served a number of enlistments covering the whole period of the War. For a couple of years before he died he received pension for that service in the amount of $40.00 per year.

He married Electe, born 10 - 23 - 1759, daughter of Obadiah and Abigail Moore, a pioneer family of Windsor, Conn., and settled in Simsbury.

His children were born in Simsbury. George Case purchased for $300.00 in Simsbury, Sept. 6, 1805, 150 acres of Congress Military land in Franklin County, Ohio, (this is now in Delaware County) and came with his family to settle there in 1806. Col. Kilbourne was agent in this sale of land, and Seth, George's oldest living brother, was witness to the signature on the deed. Seth purchased 300 acres of land just north of George's land on the West bank of the Olentangy River and some of his descendants are living there in (1936).

George's mother, Sarah Case died in Simsbury, Conn., Dec. 19, 1805 and on the trip from Simsbury to their new home, two of his daughters, Charlotte and Lucinda sickened with fever and died at the home of a Mr. Beach, south of Worthington.

George Case was 47 years of age when he came to Ohio. He lived on his farm 28 years. Three of his sons - all who were old enough to go went to the War of 1812 and his son George died a soldier of that War. He lived to see his youngest child, Titus, married and settled with children upon his farm.

George Case died Feb. 19, 1834. His wife Electe (Moore) Case died before that date. They were buried in a private burying ground on their farm in Delaware County and their gravestones stood beside the road there until just recently. They stood there until a few years ago within a rectangle by evergreen trees.

Under date of 6 - 11 - '35 from the Adjutant General's Office - War Dept., Washington, D. C.

The records show that George Case served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Capt. Zacheus Case's Co., in Col. Thomas Belding's Regt. from Conn., Militia in Continental Service at Under date of 3 - 18 - 1936 from the Veterans Adm.

He enlisted sometime in Apr. 1777, served 2 mo as substitute for Reuben Case in Capt. Zacheus's Co., Col. Seth Smith's Com. Regt. He served from sometime in July 1778 or 1779. 2 mo. in Capt. Job Case's Co., Col. Noadiah Hooker's Conn. Regt. Elisha Case was ensign in this Co. He enlisted sometime in Sept. and served 2 mos. in Capt. Elisha Case's Co. Roger Case was Lieut.

" The soldier George Case was allowed pension on his application, Nov. 21, 1832, then residing in Liberty Township, Delaware Co., O. "

There are no data on file in regard to the wife of the soldier George Case.

Note: Capt. Job Case was Uncle to George. Capt. Job Case was one of two Captains who started with troops from Simsbury at the Lexington Alarm. His son, Job Case was one of the 3 young men who surveyed Worthington, Ohio for Col. Kilbourne before the settlers came in 1803 and one of the founders of Granville, O., where he settled about 1805 with his family and where he is buried. This Job was George's cousin.

The records show clearly that Seth, born 1749 was ten years older than George born 1759. Seth died 1820. His son Seth died 1809; while George lived until 1834. Seth, the soldier, died when the country was so new that no one remembers where he was buried. Bert Case said his grave should be marked because i he was a Revolutionary War soldier. Seth married Eunice Tuller in Simsbury, Conn.

George's children were 1) George 2) Nathan 3) Electe 4) Henry 5) Naomi 6) Charlotte 7) Lucinda 8) Titus. Nathan was in the War of 1812. Henry was in the War of 1812. His son Henry fought in the Civil War and is buried at Powell. Electe married Nathan Carpenter, son of the Capt. Nathan Carpenter, who made the first settlement in Delaware County.

Electe and Nathan lived above Worthington where the Methodist Children's Home is, now. They had eleven children. Electe and Nathan died 1867 and are buried in Worthington; Naomi married Timothy Case; Titus married Hannah Fisher: he died 1860 aged 63 and is buried beside his wife in Liberty Churchyard. Hannah died 1895 when she was nearly 100. Shewwas a great personality and an interesting character. They had three daughters and a son, Miles, two daughters Elizabeth and Caroline who married two brothers, Augustus and George Elsbree and have descendants living near Lewis Center now. Miles married ^{Marion} Jane Bartholomew.

George Case Genealogy (con')

Miles and Jane had 10 children. Luella Case's mother was the 2nd one. Miles lived until 1912. He and Jane are buried in Liberty Churchyard.

Seth had (1) Seth born 1774; (2) Laomi born 1775; (3) Eunice born 1777; (4) John born 1778; (5) Silvia born 1780; (6) Cynthia born 1782; (7) Ralph born 1784; (8) Anne born 1788; Norman born 1791 and (10) Melissa born 1791.

Seth died 5 - 23 - 1809. Laomi died 9 - 28 - 1779. Eunice unmarried. John and Norman died in 1821 and are buried back of Burt Case's in a family burying ground. Silvia married Watson Case in Conn., came to Ohio in 1816 and had a son Seth Watson Case, who lived where Lacher's live on the hill on the West side of the river above the Powell Rd. Silvia and Watson are buried in Liberty Churchyard. Their son Seth W. Case died 1866 and is buried there too. Silvia died 1855 and Watson 1853.

They had descendants. Ralph married Mary Skeels, had Cynthia 1823, Norman 1824, Albert 1826, Franklin 1827, Emily 1829, William 1831, Ralph and Mary twins 1834. Cynthia married Albert Hard of Linworth. Norman married Almira Holcomb and Alice who married George Perry on the East side of the river south of Liberty Church and had Manley Perry. Albert married Abbie Williams and had George who married Caroline Boynton, daughter of Jerome and Susan (Gross) Boynton. Franklin married Esther Ann Holcomb, sister to his brother's wife. William, Emily and Mary did not marry; Ralph II married Miranda Smiet of N. Y. State; had May, married Chas. Odenthal; Frank married Stella Twitchell and had Virginia; Burton married Minerva Duffy; Millard married Esther Moran, both dead.

Note: Albert lived the second farm below Liberty Church on the east side of the river. Norman's farm joined Albert's on the south. The house Albert built during the Civil War still stands on the hill, in 1955.

Mrs. Burton Case still lives in Powell, in 1955. Luella Case died unmarried. She had kept this Case Genealogy and handed it to me as I have copied it here.

They stood there until a few years ago within a rectangle by evergreen trees.

Under date of 6-11-1935 from the Adjutant General's Office, War Dept., Washington, D. C. The records show that George Case served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Capt. Zacheus Case's Co., in Col. Thomas Belding's Regt., from Conn., Militia in Continental Service at Peek's Kill in Apr. and May A. D. 1777. His name appears only on an undated payroll of that organization which shows that he marched April 11th, joined the regiment Apr. 16, discharged May 27. Time in service 1 mo. 16 days.

From the Veteran's Administration:

"The record of George Case-----pension claim S 3115. He enlisted June, 1776, and served as a private in Edward Mott's Co., Col. Fisher Gay's Conn. Regt., and was in the engagements on Long Island and around New York and was discharged 12-25-1776.

He enlisted sometime in April, 1777, served 2 mo. as substitute for Reuben Case in Capt. Zacheus' Co., Col. Seth Smith's Com. Regt. He served from sometime in July, 1778 or 1779, 2 mo. in Capt. Job Case's Co., Col. Noadiah Hooker's Conn. Regt. Elisha Case was ensign in this Co. He enlisted sometime in Sept. and served 2 mos. in Capt. Elisha Case's Co. Roger Case was Lieut.

"The soldier George Case was allowed pension on his application Nov. 21, 1832, then residing in Liberty Township, Delaware Co., O."

There are no data on file in regard to the wife of the soldier, George Case.

Note: Capt. Job Case was uncle to George. Capt. Job Case was one of the two captains who started with troops from Simsbury at the Lexington alarm. His son, Job Case, was one of the three young men who surveyed Worthington, Ohio, from Colonel Kilbourne before the settlers came in 1803 and one of the founders of Granville, O., where he settled about 1805 with his family and where he is buried. This Job was George's cousin.

Mrs. Clarissa C. Stilwell, 104 Montrose Ave., Delaware, is a DAR by descent from Job Case. Her DAR number is 262751.

The records show clearly that Seth, born 1749, was ten years older than George, born 1759. Seth died 1820. His son, Seth, died 1809. While George lived until 1834, Seth, the soldier, died when the country was so new that no one remembers where he was buried. Bert Case said his grave should be marked because he was a Revolutionary War soldier. Seth married Eunice Tuller in Simsbury, Conn.

The following is copied from Official Roster III "Soldiers of the American Revolution who lived in the State of Ohio," page 68.

"Seth Case - Delaware Co.

David Phelps and Phineas Drake, Ensign Samuel Wing.

We staid in New York a short time and then our Regiment was ordered onto Long Island to join General Green, the British landed at Flat Bush, I was ordered under command of Colonel Jame Wyllis with eight hundred men to proceed thither, and I think tarried there two nights and then the British set out to surround us and we was obliged to retreat to the fort; no engagement took place, but scattering fires I saw but one man killed, the rest of the party all escaped safe to the fort, where we staid I think one night and the next night being very dark and foggy we left the Island for New York where we tarried a few days, two ships sailed up the sound to Turkle Bay, our Brigade was ordered into the intrenchment against shipping to prevent the British from Long Island. Parked in a cove out of sight then coming around the point under cove of the cannon from the ships and landed at Turkle Bay, we being ordered to retreat had a fifteen mile chase to Harlem Heights, there made a stand for a few days, we had a great many men taken, from thence we made our way over Kings Bridge to the White Plains, and made no stand except for a night or so, where we made a stand a few days moving from place to place, from thence we proceeded up the road encamping at several places until we came to North Church where we staid until the 25 th of December our time then being expired we were legally discharged.

Before taking up the life of Watson Case, we might pause to note that his father, Uriah Case was a soldier in the American Revolution, serving from Connecticut. According to Connecticut Men in the Revolution, page 444, he was a quartermaster under Major Elisha Sheldon in the Fifth Regiment of Light Horse, 1776. He is often referred to as "Captain" Uriah Case. He and his first wife, Susannah Lawrence were the parents of three daughters and one son: Zilpah, Sylvia, Uriah and Susannah. It seems likely that he married Eunice Dill the year following Susannah's death, 1777. Watson, their third child (and our line) was born on June 8, 1781 - about four years after their marriage. In researching the Case line one finds many instances of Case marrying Case. For instance, our Watson Case married Sylvia Case. I find an unusual and notable example in that of Uriah Case's third wife, Mary whose maiden name was Case and who married a Case, and finally as a widow, married still another Case - Uriah Case. Thus, we find Watson Case marrying Sylvia Case sometime in the very early 1800's. With all the material I have gathered about Case families in Connecticut, I have not been able to place this Sylvia Case in a particular family. It would be complete and satisfying if some member of her family should read this in the Connecticut state library and be able to identify her for me.

Watson had only two full brothers, Joab and Holcomb. Neither one came to Ohio, nor did his half-brother, Uriah. However, many members of the Case families did come to that same county in Ohio. Some of them were there even before Watson: John, George, Ralph, etc. I have not been able to place these Case men in their respective Connecticut families (all of them were born there.) Therefore, I am holding to the theory that they were related to Sylvia (Case) Case, rather than Watson and that this could be the reason for Watson and Sylvia bringing their young family to the Ohio frontier.

Watson and Sylvia were the parents of three children that I know about. This seems a small family for that day, and it is entirely possible that there were others who did not survive infancy. Their daughter, Eunice Ann was the youngest, born in 1814 in Collinsville, Conn. according to an old history. This means that Watson did not leave for Ohio until after 1814. Their destination was the Liberty Community in Delaware County, Ohio. We know by the 1820 U.S. Census that they were settled in Ohio. In 1960 a booklet was published by Harriet Frye entitled Liberty Presbyterian Church and the Liberty Community. 150 years. It concerns this exact area that Watson Case came to, along the Olentangy River, in Delaware County, Ohio. Quoting her "Nathan Carpenter and Avery Powers brought their goods up the Scioto and Olentangy Rivers in canoes and built their cabins in the spring of 1801 on the farm today known as Marycrest, and earlier as White Star Farm. That year, Thomas Cellar, a gunsmith during the American Revolution, and his son-in-law, Josiah McKinnie, came from Pennsylvania, bought 4,000 acres, and built a cabin on the same side of the river In 1807 there were 24 property holders listed; in 1809 there were 34. However, this included land speculators, and women and children were not listed. A church was not long in coming - a church with one pastor, one body of elders, and one congregation in three communities: Liberty, Delaware and Radnor, extending over fourteen miles of Indian trail in all. The year was 1810." A church subscription list of December, 1815, gives 28 names, among them the following Case men and how much they promised to pay the "preacher" -----

John Case	$6.00
Martin Case.....	1.00
Freema Case	1.00
George Case, Jr.....	2.00
Titus Case	1.00
N. Case.....	1.00
Harry Case.....	1.00

One early account says that Watson Case came in the year 1816 in a caravan with the Carpenters and Cellars. We have already taken note of Nathan Carpenter and Thomas Cellar. Perhaps other members of these families came later, with Watson. At any rate, we know that Ralph, Watson and George Case are supposed to have come from Connecticut at about the same time. As indicated earlier, they were not brothers. The family of James Gillie also came about the same time. By 1820 we have proof of Watson's residence. His family unit sets up thus:

1820 U.S. Census - Ohio. Delaware County

Case, Watson

2 males 26 to 45 - one is Watson

1 female under 10 - Eunice Ann
1 female 10 to 14 - Elizabeth
1 female 26 to 45 - Sylvia, the mother and wife

2 persons engaged in agriculture

Note: It is impossible to determine now who the other male (26 to 45) was in the household. Very likely, it was a relative. One old history states that most of these early settlers were related in some way or another.

Just over Watson Case in that same census, same township, same neighborhood is a Case who appears only in this census:

Case, Unice

2 males 26 to 45

1 female under 10

1 female 10 to 16

1 female 26 to 45

In the next census we find Watson with an extra teen-age male in his household, and the male in his own age bracket does not appear again.

Back to the family of Watson and Sylvia. From his will we know that he had a daughter who died prior to 1853. He left certain bequests to grandsons John W. and Henry E. VanDeman which indicates they were the children of a daughter who married someone named VanDeman. Until proven otherwise, I am taking the position that this daughter was the Elizabeth S. Case who married Joseph Van Deman on Feb. 16, 1841. The record can be found in the Delaware County court house records. I also believe that this Joseph Van Deman was the son of the Reverend Henry Van Deman who was
